Eleven Killed by
LIGHTNING IN CHICAGO.
PARTY OF BATHERS
SOUGHT SHELTER FROM STORM.

A 12-Year-Old Boy the Only One Who Escaped—Four Men and Seven Boys Victims.

Chicago, Ill., July 1.—Crowded together in a little zinc-lined shanty under a North shore pier this afternoon, 10 boys and young men and one older person met instant death by lightning. The victims had been fishing and bathing in Lake Michigan at the foot of the Montrose boulevard, on the north side. The bolt struck the pier where they were sheltered, and all were thrown into the lake. A policeman attracted to the pier by the crashing timbers, found it impossible to rescue any of the victims. The heavy timbers of the pier had been shattered and the whole structure toppled into the water. He hurried to a patrol box and called for assistance.
Nearly half an hour elapsed before the aid arrived. The work of recovering the bodies was extremely difficult, but finally all were carried ashore. Opposed by the extreme heat, the boys had gone in bathing. When the rain began to fall and it became evident severe electrical storm was coming, they rushed to shelter they had built
